Effective sentences are three elements which make for effectiveness in sentence.

- (1) Unity
- (2) Coherence
- (3) Emphasis

Five ways unity is violated.

- (1) By combining unrelated ideas.
- (2) Putting too much in one idea.

- (4) Subordination.
- (5) Parallelism.

What are independent or main clauses and dependent or subordinate clauses?

Those that express complete thoughts are called independent or main clauses; others are called dependent or subordinate clauses.

What is coherence?

This helps to create an effective sentence when the various parts follow one another in an order which makes their relationship clear.

All these destroy coherence in a sentence

- 1) Reference of pronoun

2) Splitcontractions

3) Badconstruction

a)Mixtureoffiguresofspeech

Tensplayacrucialrole intheEnglishlanguage.Itdenotesthetimeanactiontakes place, whether some time in the past, in the present or future.

What is the difference between base form and past tense form?

The Base Form:

It is the form in which verbs are listed in the dictionary. It is used in the present tense for all subjects except third - person singular subjects.

Past Tense Form:

The past-tense form of most verbs is formed by adding -ed or -d to the basic form.

Definition of Present Participle?

It is the -ing form of a verb. The present participle is the form that is used with the helping verbs am, is, are, was, or were to show continuing action.

Definition of Past Participle?

The past participle of a verb is usually the same as its past tense form. The past participle is the form that is used with the helping verbs have, has, and had and with am, is, are, was, were.

Write down the name of main tenses?

There are six main tenses in English. They are present, past, future, present perfect, past perfect and future perfect.

Tense example

Tense	Example
Present	I jump

Past	I jumped
Future	I will jump
Present perfect	I have jumped
Past perfect	I had jumped
Future perfect	I will have jumped

What is The Present Tense?

It is used to describe an action that is happening in the present or to describe a condition that exists at the present time regardless of the other verbs in the sentence.

What is The Past Tense?

It is used to describe an action or state of being that occurred sometime in the past.

What is The Future Tense?

It is used to indicate an action which is to take place in the future or a state or condition that will exist sometime in the future.

The Three Perfect Tenses are formed by adding the helping verb have, has, or had to the past participle of the verb. The past participle of a regular verb is simply the form that ends in -ed.

The Present Perfect Tense is used to describe an action that started in the past and either has been finished or is continuing at the present time.

The present perfect tense is formed when we add has or have plus the past participle.

What is The Past Perfect Tense?

It describes an action that was completed in the past before another past action. The past perfect tense is formed when we add had plus the past participle.

What is Future Perfect Tense?

It describes an action that will be completed before sometime in the future. The future perfect tense is formed when we add shall have or will have to the past participle.

What is The Three Progressive Tenses?

As their name suggests, these tenses express actions still in progress at a particular time. They are made by adding a form of the helping verb -be to the -ing form of the verb.

1. Present Progressive Tense:

It expresses an action taking place at this moment or that will occur sometime in the future.

2. past Progressive Tense:

It expresses an action that was in progress at a certain time in the past.

It expresses an action that will be in progress at a certain time in the future.
